“ The laughing "until it hurt" began sitting in your mother's kitchen with Linda and your parents back in 1973.... it has ended way too soon! Keep them laughing Denise wherever you are! Deepest condolences to the Mandeville & Kerth Families.

“ I will always remember the day we met. You were brave and fierce and stood up to the scariest dragons. Your words to me were, "don't become the storm". You gave me the best advice despite your own battles. I will always smile whenever I think about you and all the conversations we had. You were a true warrior my friend. I will never forget you. God speed, Denise. I will miss you forever, thank you for being real and passionate about the world we live in. The world is a little less brighter since you've been gone.

My Mom, Ebby Bolger, always spoke of about your laughter. She wrote a funny poem about your previous breast cancer as only Mom could do. Oh how she loved you. We loved you too. You are an amazing women and a leader with vision with a soul that truly cared about your fellow workers. We are saddened by your death. You left a big hole in our hearts and we are sure you left a hole in many hearts. I know Mom was there to greet you 😭 love you, Colleen and Jane ❤️❤️❤️

I look at your picture and that is how I will always remember you. Smiling and laughing that infectious laugh. We had some great times in our twenties. Thrift Mart and all. Captains Quarters, etc. I was so glad we re-connected on FB the last few years. Who knows why things happen the way they do. Mabe your job here was done and Heaven needed much more laughter. Watch over us and thank you for some of the best times ever.
