“ I knew Jimmy for only five years. We worked together at Najarian, and I considered him a colleague, a friend, and a brother in Christ. Jimmy loved life, loved his wife Cathleen and he loved God and Jesus Christ. He had an amazing sense of humor, a beautiful singing voice and could make you laugh with his imitations of people. He loved trips to Maine with his wife Cathleen, having Scotch with his colleagues at work, and he loved life. There really are no words to truly express how much he will be missed. There was a light extinguished on earth when he passed away, but I hold fast to the truth that we will celebrate with him again in eternity.
Godspeed my friend, Godspeed

“ This broke my heart! I loved him not only as a good friend but like the “weird little brother I never had”! He made me feel welcome on my first day at Najarian. He was so smart, warm, and funny plus always ready to try anything I baked. Willing to help me with all my computer problems even after I moved to Maryland. It was an honor and a privilege to work with him for 20 years! Deepest love, prayers to Cathleen and family.

“ I have great memories of Jimmy when we were kids. Snowball fights with our Dads and Uncle Ronnie at MeMa's at Christmas . He made me a great mix on a cassette tape of Beatles songs, ELO and the Cars. Pop Pop Art gave us money to go see The Empire Strikes Back at Seaview Square Mall. He always made me laugh. Heartfelt condolences to all our family. Scott Cotgreave

“ When Jimmy was born, I was so happy to become an aunt. I enjoyed watching him grow from being Speed Racer as a little boy, to a talented singer in his teens and to having a successful career and marriage. Rest in peace my dear nephew. You will be missed.
