

Patrick James Ryan

October 7, 1987 - February 7, 2009

Patrick J. Ryan, 21, of Tinton Falls, passed away on February 7, 2009 at Jersey Shore Medical Center, Neptune, NJ.

A lifelong resident of New Jersey, Patrick was recently discharged from the United States Army and returned to live within the love and safety of his family. He is predeceased by his brother Brian Crowley, his natural father Brian C. Crowley, his Grandmother Geraldine Carpentieri, his Grandparents William and Dorothy Ryan and so many others who welcomed him home. With a sad yet hopeful heart he is survived by his brother Michael Ryan, his father William J. Ryan, Jr., his mother Bonnie Crowley, his grandfather John Carpentieri, his aunt and uncle Kathleen and Richard Wolff, his uncle James Ryan and aunt Barbara Backer as well as his cousins Matthew and Maureen Wolff and Katie and Bessie Ryan. Pat's survivors also include friends beyond measure both in numbers and their ability to love.

Patrick attended both Cardinal McCarrick High School, South Amboy, New Jersey and Monmouth Regional High School, Tinton Falls from which he graduated in June, 2006. Patrick loved TaeKwonDo which he studied at Ganguly's Martial Arts Academy in Ocean. He played soccer, ran track, traveled the United States, especially to Disney World, and looked forward to going to Ireland one day. Mostly though, Pat's faith gave him the strength to be that special person to everyone he ever met.

“ To the Ryan family: Patrick entertained the hearts and minds of everyone he knew. His presence was always welcomed and he will truly be missed. I had class with Pat my senior year before he switched schools and he always made it fun. Though we weren't great friends, he always made me and those around smile. He was a great person and did this country proud. Pat, rest in peace and remember to watch over those who love you.##imported-begin##Lauren Mortenson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family and Friends, I went to school with Pat at Cardianl McCarrick. He was an amazing person who always made me laugh, even though sometimes it wouldn't be the right time, I didn't care. As I was a freshmen there I knew one person from middle school but Pat instantly became my best guy freind with a few others. We always were together that year. He was always kind and thought of others, he knew when you were down and made you smile again. I will never forget when him and Dave.W. would do their martial arts on the stage after school or even in the hallways after school. When I heard what happened, I was shocked and wish it wasn't true. I have the family in my prayers and Pat you will be well missed.##imported-begin##Meghan Lynch ##imported-end##

“ I hope this is not to late, but I will be attending a beloved dear friend of mine who has passed away at the wake. I have attended to the same school Cardinal MacCarrek Freshmen and Sophomore year. We where really close friends, close enough to be brothers. I played soccer and ran track with him. It brakes my heart to hear he's gone and I never got a chance to say goodbye. But this time I will, when I attend to the wake at 7:00. Thank you##imported-begin##Jesus Felicie##imported-end##

“ To Patrick's family: My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. I am so sorry for your loss. My most fond memories of Patrick are when he would perform martial arts on the Cardinal McCarrick gym stage in the talent show or after school. His energy and focus were captivating. I have no doubt that he is in heaven looking on with pride for having served his country and affected so many people in such a positive way.

Rest in Peace Pat. You will be remembered and greatly missed.##imported-begin##Elizabeth Mackintosh##imported-end##

“ Bill & Michael, our hearts and prayers go out to you. Though we've only shared updates through Christmas cards these last few years, we have vivid memories of our trips to the Trenton Thunder and Great Adventure as your new family was just forming. The Christmas cards show the pictures of two boys becoming men and the stories reveal the journey of a truly loving family. We pray for you that God will give you the strength and courage to endure this tragedy and the faith to know that someday you will be reunited with Patrick in a far better place than this earth. God Bless you and God Bless Patrick.##imported-begin##Lisa & Joe Jackson##imported-end##
